The Worker

All over the world, some people work with their hands, and some work with their brains. The world needs both kinds of workers.

Sometimes, the people working with their brains think that they are more important. One day, a lawyer asked a boatman to take him across the river. "Do you know math and science?" he asked. "Did you study law or languages?" he went on. "I don't need to learn these skills," said the boatman. "You are wasting your life, young man," said the lawyer.

Then the boat came to the middle of the wide river. The water was deep there. The boat was old and weak. Soon they saw a hole in the boat. Water slowly began to fill the floor of the boat.

The boatman looked at the lawyer. “Excuse me. Did you learn to swim?” asked the working man.

The educated man answered, "I am an educated man. Why do I need to learn swimming?"

"That is too bad, dear educated man. The water is coming in our boat. Our boat is sinking, and the river is deep and wide," said the boatman.

读后做一做

Tell true or false. 判断正 (T) 误 (F)。

- () 1. The lawyer thought his work was more important.
- () 2. The boatman didn't learn science.

读前想一想

1. Do you have a dream? What is it?
2. Is your dream realistic(现实的)?
3. What will you do to make it true?

I Have a Dream

Hi! I'm Maddy the Monster. I live in a big, big house with my big, big family. My grandfather took a trip to see my family last Sunday. He came to Canada from the U.S. I met him at the airport.

Yesterday, we got up early and walked to the park. My grandfather is healthy. He walked fast. He told me to do exercise every day. He said that was good for my body.

I often watched the birds in the forest. I wanted so much to fly. I decided to practice jumping every day. Maybe I could fly one day. I wanted my grandfather to watch me fly. I was so excited. I asked Anna to go to the forest with me. We climbed high up the tree.

Lucy saw us in the tall tree and asked why. Then she ran to my grandfather fast. What did she say to my grandfather? I didn't know!

My grandfather came to us. He asked, "Why are you high in the tree?" "Grandpa, I have a dream! I want to fly in the sky like a bird. I will practice jumping off the tall tree," answered I. "Oh, my dear, come down," said my grandfather.

"No, Grandpa! I want to fly!" I cried. I wanted to make my dream true. I didn't want to give up. I wanted to have a try. "Maddy, come down and listen to me," said my grandfather. Then he took Anna and me down from the tree.

“Dear Maddy, it’s good to have a dream, but make sure it’s realistic,” said my grandfather. “You are not a bird. You can’t fly. But you can do many other things.”
“I see, Grandpa. I will practice running. I will also practice playing football!” I said happily.
