The Month Family

Mr. and Mrs. Month have a big family. They have twelve little Months. Eleven of the little Months go to school – January, February, March, April, May, June, July, August, September, October and November.

"I want to go to school," says December. "When do I go to school?"

"On August 31," says Mrs. Month.

"Do I go to school tomorrow?" asks little December.

"Yes!" says Mrs. Month.

"I go to school tomorrow! I go to school tomorrow!" says December.

He jumps up and down.

On August 31, little December wakes up. He goes to school today! He feels happy.

Where are his brothers and sisters? January, February, March, April, May, June, July, August, September, October and November are sleeping.

"Wake up!" says December. He jumps on the bed. January opens his eyes. He feels tired. "What is the date?" he asks.

"It's August 31!" says December. "It's the first day of school!"

"How's the weather today?" asks January.

"In August, it's hot and sunny," says December.

"Hot and sunny? I like cold and snowy days," says January. "When is it cold and snowy?"

"In January, January," says little December.

"Wake me up in January," says January.

Where is Mr. Month? Where is Mrs. Month? Mr. and Mrs. Month are sleeping.

"Wake up!" says December. "It's August 31! It's the first day of school!" Mrs. Month opens her eyes. She feels tired. "I'm hungry!" says December. "When is breakfast?"

Mrs. Month looks at her clock. "December!" she says. "It's four o'clock in the morning! It's not time for breakfast! Go to bed!"

December goes to bed. He can't sleep. He wants to go to school.
 "January?" he says. "February? March? April? May? June? July? August?
 September? October? November? I don't want to go to bed."
 "Shhhhh," say his brothers and sisters.
 "I want to go to school!" says December.
 "Shhhhh," say his brothers and sisters.
